

July 16

AM: Color me in – Life size cut out of yourself, styled with fun and funky scraps

PM: Alcohol ink tiles – Design one-of-a-kind wall art or coasters with ceramic tiles

July 17

AM: Egg carton critters – Frogs, turtles and ladybugs...Oh my

PM: Stone art – Build people and animal scenes with smooth Florida beach stones

July 23

AM: Paint squish monsters – Squish paint into imaginary monsters with google eyes

PM: Treasure soap – Hand soap with small treasures inside using melt and pour techniques

July 24

AM: Pipe cleaner monkeys – Fun for pencil toppers and more

PM: Glow in the dark bouncy balls – Slime but bouncier

July 30

AM: Super hero hands

PM: Accordion book binding – Construct an accordion style book with hidden pockets decorated with fun papers and washi tape

July 31

AM: Wax paper resist paintings – Make beautiful one of a kind art using crumpled wax paper and liquid water colors

PM: Origami blinking eyes and talking lips

The Camp is led by Laura Smith, our Education and Gallery Coordinator. Laura excels at creating fun and engaging art classes for children (and adults).