

A gift has been made in your honour:

Safe space for women

Women and girls who have to flee home can face so many risks. These special facilities in places like Tigray, Ethiopia provide displaced women with support, security and critical services including trauma care.