First stop, the historic Queen Mary, a floating museum in the beautiful Long Beach harbor. Our narrated tour will delve into the ship's expansive past, including her groundbreaking construction, her time as a troopship during WWII and of course, her glory days as the world's most luxurious and technologically advanced ocean liner. Next, we continue on to Beverly Hills, the Hollywood Walk of Fame home to the historic handprints of iconic celebrities and the famous theater known for the "Oscars". This evening we'll enjoy a group dinner at a local restaurant. Overnight Newport Beach hotel

Dec 30 HANDS-ON FLOAT DECORATING (B)

Early morning departure for a day of "pushing petals" and float decorating in the exciting final stages of preparing the floats for the Rose Parade. This is the 70th year that the Southern California District of the International Lutheran Laymen's League has been invited to enter a float. As "petal pushers" we have the honor of decorating many meaningful floats in the parade. This evening dinner is on your own at the hotel restaurant or one of the restaurants within walking distance of the hotel. Overnight Newport Beach hotel

Dec 31 MISSION SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, LAGUNA BEACH NEW YEAR'S EVE DINNER (B, D)

Today our guide will lead us on a tour of the Mission San Juan Capistrano. Next, we will visit to the quaint village of Laguna Beach for a stroll along the oceanfront boardwalk, for shopping and lunch before we continue on to Newport Harbor for a complimentary harbor cruise (weather permitting).

Jan 01 131st ROSE PARADE "THE POWER OF HOPE" (B, L)

The event we came to see is about to begin. Our grand-stand reserved seats are located along Colorado Blvd. What an opportunity to see first-hand the amazing floats, the precision and music of the marching bands and equestrian groups. And... as the beautifully decorated Lutheran Hour float passes by we'll jump to our feet and applaud, knowing that we have, in our own way, helped make it happen. After the parade we'll enjoy a post parade meal complete with television screens to watch the bowl games! Lunch and overnight Newport Beach hotel
