Hand to Heart Scholarship Fund

During the challenging times we have all experienced, our scholarship fund has never been more relevant and needed. Crossroads started the Hand to Heart Scholarship fund in the late 1980's to make sure people of all ages could access our programs regardless of their financial situation. It has been a bedrock of our organization ever since. If you see a class you would like to take and you cannot afford to do so, go to our website at www.crossroads-arts.org or stop by Crossroads and pick-up a Scholarship Form. We ask that families pay 10% of the class costs to assure that our scholarship fund can help as many families as possible. If you need a full scholarship we can work with you-you might consider donating time to volunteer at Crossroads- we honor everyone's dignity. We have multiple fundraisers a year to make sure we have plenty of funds in our Scholarship account. Donations are always welcome!

Thank You

With thanks to the DE and Jane Clark Fund of Oregon Community Foundation and the US BANK FOUNDATION we will make this quarterly class schedule available to Everyone in Baker City!

Class Minimums and How to Sign Up for Classes

Crossroads needs at least 3 participants to hold a class. Our teachers' time is valuable and we need to insure that offering the class makes sense to them as well as the art center. Please help us fill our classes by signing up early, asking a friend to join you for a class, or helping promote our classes through social media. Remember you can sign up for classes through our website www.crossroads-arts.org - this is currently the best way to sign up and pay for class. You can also stop by the art center Monday thru Saturday 10 am to 5 pm and sign up at the front counter.

Addie comes to Crossroads with years of experience in Education and a passionate love of the arts. Having served individuals of all ages and abilities with an emphasis on meeting the needs of each student, she hopes to continue to inspire others to explore their full selves through art.

Her hours will be Monday, Wednesday and Friday, allowing her time to pursue her own artistic pursuits. Please stop by and say hello and make Addie feel welcome to the Crossroads family!

Covid-19, Crossroads and 2021

May 13, 2021

Crossroads board and staff continues to monitor the many issues that impact our unique business model at Crossroads. We have been evaluating programs and practices as well as trying to stay focused on our mission. As you may have noticed, we are using Facebook as the most effective way to get our messages out to the community. If you have already liked our Facebook page, thank you, and please encourage others to do the same. We also rely on you to help us spread the word to those that may not have a Facebook account.

The Health and Safety guidelines are an ever-changing process for staff. The Board of Directors will continue to make the best decisions for our organization. They will continue to consult Legal, Liability Insurance and Medical professionals to make these decisions. We will continue to inform you with signage at the door, Facebook and our website. If any classes must be postponed or cancelled, we will update you via Facebook and our website. Crossroads believes Art will be a healing source of good for all in the come days! Come join us!

New Normal

WHAT WILL 2021 BRING?

It is difficult to plan for the unknown. Crossroads continues to follow all the OHA and CDC Guidelines. Bringing your child to the art center for classes (or coming for class yourself) will require a few extra steps.

For all Children's Classes we are required to do a brief wellness and log in who dropped off and who is picking up. If you choose to have your child walk home please make sure that box is checked on the Participation Registration Form (available in English and Spanish on our website.)

At this time: All persons age 5 and older are required to wear a face covering over their nose and mouth.

We ask that all parents continue the discussions you have had with your children over the course of the school year to include: Hand washing/hand hygiene, not hugging or touching other students, not touching their face, suck on the fingers or hair. It is a challenge! But we will manage it with kindness and patience. Remember don't send your child to class if they are not feeling well.

Because children are not yet vaccinated, social distancing is very important. Teachers will be vigilant in monitor this. If they are sucking on their fingers or touching their face they will be sent to the bathroom to wash their hands again.

Adult Classes are aligned to the State Risk Level Metric at this time. Please do not come to class if you feel unwell. We usually have a thermometer nearby if you want to take your own temperature. We are asking adults to model "best behaviors" to our young people including social distancing, mask wearing and hand cleanliness. We request that adults respect the signs posted at the door regarding mask wearing and appreciate your help in keeping Crossroads a safe place for all to enjoy.

As we write this, we fully expect the rules to change probably a dozen times! Staff will continue to use our website, social media, press release, signage, and even E-Blasts to update you on changes. We again ask for patience, kindness and courtesy as we navigate this difficult time.

Membership Updates

Please take a look in this class schedule at our New Membership Information. Crossroads is committed to getting more young people involved in our programs as we come out of COVID-19. The Board of Directors voted to "lower" membership rate for Student Memberships (18 Years and Under) to $18.00 a year or $1.50 a month. This membership will be for the student only. Those families wish to get the member discounts on classes for the whole family need to purchase the family membership. If you want to set your membership on a budget plan with an auto deduct from your checking or credit card you are in control and do this by going to our website www.crossroads-arts.org and in the top right corner setting up your account. Once you set up your account you can renew your membership and set it up to deduct monthly if you choose and you control the date to pulls from your account.

We also freshened up our Business Membership Program as well so consider becoming a Business Member which gives the business owner all the benefits of personal membership and depending on the level provide some great employee incentives.

We thank our membership committee: Karen Owen, Mary Stiglich and Hillery Lay for all their efforts to make the program vibrant and meaningful.

Missoula Children's Theater Returns in July!

MCT UPDATE FROM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR GINGER SAVAGE

Crossroads is thrilled to welcome back MCT after a year's hiatus due to Covid-19. At the time of publication we continue to work out the details on the two shows we will be hosting.

Please check out the details in the class schedule and for updates on our Facebook page. Notice the show dates are changed due to the changes on the MCT Tour schedule. We are back at the High School and everyone will need to enter from the Choir Room door. Students and Directors will wear masks the entire time.

We are limited to 30 students per show. No parents are allowed in the building for any rehearsals.

The biggest hurdle we still face at this moment we cannot have an audience.

Crossroads has created a Plan A and Plan B—one involves me requesting permission from the Governor to social distance an audience in that huge auditorium and Plan B is the Baker 5J School District has volunteered to live stream the shows for us.

Let's hope I can work my magic and get an audience-- but if I can't it will be okay.

Your kids will be making magic anyway. Theatre is more than the roar of the applause it is the friends made and the satisfaction of giving it your best.

I ask for patience with us as we navigate these challenges.

~GLS

"Dress for success" is good advice that the Emperor takes whole-heartedly, wanting to impress new friends. But where to stop? When the clothes (and other people's opinions) become more important than the people of the kingdom, trouble brews. ## SUMMER MUSIC LESSONS

Allison Swensen Mitchell will be teaching in-person voice lessons again this summer starting in the middle of June. She will be limiting her studio to 10 students. Her rates are $45 per hour and $25 per half-hour. Some scholarships are available through Crossroads Art Museum. Please contact Allison directly at (503) 393-8271 for more information.

*We will be adding more classes to our summer line-up! Please keep checking our website www.crossroads-arts.org
and Facebook for the latests updates.*

*Crossroads Carnegie Art Center says farewell to one of our most passionate community arts advocates
Sharon Bannister
who is leaving the board and moving to the Midwest.*

Sharon has been a volunteer at Crossroads back when Crossroads was on Main Street. She has been on the Board of Directors for nearly 10 years and brings pragmatic business perspective, her years of working in Labor Relations for the Union Pacific Railroad and a collector and connoisseur of art.
These years working with Sharon taught me that good governance comes from a Board of Directors who bring different viewpoints, different backgrounds and another way of looking at an issue. She has always made Crossroads better.
Sharon and I have had many a fun road trip including attending Oregon Potters Association Ceramic Showcase to promote the Persistence in Clay show in 2012 for four days in Portland among many others. I am losing a mentor and friend and our organization is losing a powerful voice but the kids and grandkids are a calling. Enjoy Sharon! You will be missed!

WESTERN HERITAGE - LEGACY WORK OF JERRY KENCKE

With Thanks from Jerry--Raffle

In June, Crossroads hosts a remarkable retrospective of the photography of Jerry Kencke of Mountain Home, Idaho. Jerry passed away in 2019 after a battle with Cancer.

Jerry was such a huge supporter of Crossroads as a Sales Gallery Artist, Featured Artist and one of our Judges for the "Cascadia" show and project.

Jerry Kencke, Jerry's widow, is bringing a spectacular show to the gallery at Crossroads of his work and legacy as a magnificent photographer of the western landscape and lifestyle. She is facing a house filled with his work and a desire to share his legacy.

In his collection, is a remarkable image of a Belgian Stud Horse, Jerry built the frame for this massive image. This image, now on display at Crossroads, after it was on display in the Idaho Governor Butch Otter's office for almost two years. We have in our possession letters of authenticity from Governor Otter attesting to this.

Because the image is 4 ½ feet by 5 feet in dimension, it struggles to find its "forever home." Cindy came to Crossroads and we are going to share a significant portion of the income of raffle the piece off to support our ArtSpeak program.

To participate go to our online raffle at <https://one.bidpal.net/jerrykencke>

PICTURING PARADISE

Picturing Paradise is an exhibition that features embroidered and appliquéd fabric pictures called cuadros, created by the women of Compacto Humano and Manos Anchashinas, two art cooperatives located in Pamplona Alta, a shantytown situated on the outskirts of Lima, Peru. The exhibition places emphasis on the women as artists and the way their art reflects creativity, resilience, and hope despite the harsh conditions of their lives.

REFLECTIONS WITH AMY VANGAASBECK AND SLADE ELBERT

With Amy VanGaasbeck and Slade Elbert, these two artists anticipate a show that is focused on the organic and man-made reflections of our world. With Slade using photography as his medium and Amy her hyper-realistic oil paintings they will capture the quiet solitude of a still lake to the cold shine of man-made objects that surround our world.

September 2021
Open Regional Show

Crossroads would like to give a friendly reminder to local and regional artists to keep in mind of our Annual September Open Regional Show. We have just confirmed our judge this year will be Emily Somoskey, Visiting Assistant Professor of Whitman College in Walla Walla, WA. Hopefully things will be more back to normal and we will see your smiling faces at the Crossroads!

But we are thrilled to announce:

- Barley Brown's will be our signature Beer Sponsor

- Anthony Lakes Mountain Resort Culinary Team will be doing the food!
- We have booked the Edelweiss Band from Boise, Idaho.

Remember 2020?

APRIL THEME SHOW, "THE POWER OF ONE"

The Power of One was our first exhibition that was exclusively to an online format. In the times of COVID-19 and the unexpected around the corner, Crossroads still wanted to share the world of art with the community. The show was in a slideshow format with an accompanying list of artists and titles which can still be seen on our website!

"AN UNTAMED WORLD" WITH KENDRICK MOHOLT

Our second online show was "An Untamed World," featuring field biologist Kendrick Moholt with his narrated exhibition which can still be viewed at the Crossroads website. Moholt has spent the last three decades photographing all seven continents and to see what he is up to now follow him on Facebook at Kendrick Moholt Photography. Thank you Kendrick for sharing your world of beautiful photographs!

POTTERY STUDIO

As more health information we will try to get the pottery studio open and classes started as soon as possible. The space is so small that we are challenged to get classes started.

Individuals with pottery experience can continue to get Pottery Passes and use the studio any time Monday thru Saturday 10 am to 5 pm with Reservations.

Continue to monitor Facebook and our website for updates if things change.

Additional items that can be used as fillers if needed
