Hand to Heart Can Help!

Crossroads started the Hand to Heart Scholarship fund in the late 1980's to make sure people of all ages could access our programs regardless of their financial situation. It has been a bedrock of our organization ever since. Engagement with the arts is healthy for the mind, body, and soul and supports a healthy vibrant community. We firmly believe "Art is for Everyone!"

The scenarios Hand-to-Heart can help with are diverse. Sometimes people just need just a little reduction on the price of a class to make it work for their situation. Sometimes families arrange a quantity discount so that multiple children can take classes without a financial burden. Sometimes a person contributes 10% towards a class and Hand-to-Heart covers the rest. And of course, we are happy to provide full scholarships if needed.

If you see a class you or your children would like to take and need some Hand-to-Heart help please don't hesitate to ask! A Scholarship Form is included with this class schedule. You may also print out a form from our website www.crossroads-arts.org or pick one up at the front desk. Its confidential and our staff will make sure we match you with the support that works best for you.

Membership

We hope you all know that Crossroads has two types of Membership- Individual/Family or Business.

Our business memberships have been designed to include that small community business who wants to extend the benefits of a family membership to their employees. Business Memberships come with a variety of prices and unique benefits including class discount cards to be given to employees and sponsorship of Oktoberfest or First Friday. This allows supporters to write Crossroads just one check a year if they choose. New this spring- we are excited to announce the Business Brag Board for our Business Members to hang in your office. Designed by artist Hillery Lay it will feature an image of one of our youth programs. Sign up today for an Individual or Business Membership.

Building Rental

As people are beginning to gather again, we are fielding calls about renting the building. There is not enough space in this column to outline all the changes made by the Board of Directors. Please check in at www.crossroads-arts.org and at the bottom of the page look in the Forms Library for "Updated Building Rental Information". Here you will find the new plans, contracts, and fee structure. We will be offering limited building rental, but for larger events please contact the Baker County Fairgrounds or Baker Towers (via Sunfire Realty), to name just a few venues that are larger than Crossroads for weddings and family reunions.

The mission of the Crossroads Carnegie Art Center, Inc., a 501(c)3 non-profit founded in 1963, is to create opportunities for the entire community to be engaged, inspired, and transformed by the arts through participation in classes, workshops, exhibits, mentorships, and partnerships - A welcoming place where people meet and the arts speak.

Organizer: Peter Fargo. For more information: Call or text 208-391-3397 or email peter@climatevigil.org. Ask about our Sunday service projects.

THE FURNACE FUND NOW BECOMES THE A/C FUND

Since our last class schedule, we continue to work towards getting the new furnaces on both floors replaced. We thank the Ford Family Foundation Good Neighbor Fund for granting Crossroads $10,000 for the new furnaces. Thanks to so many lovely donors we have received over $4200 in donations to help with over $25,000 in furnace expenses. Due to supply challenges-they should be installed the first week of May!

We now move on to raising the funds for the new Air-Conditioning units for Crossroads. We have multiple grants out and hope to get a whole series of critical upgrades to the building done.

Your donations to "Carnegie Library Building Fund" over the next few months will be dedicated to the new A/C units and the critical building projects we are working on. Let's keep the Capital Building Fund active to replenish it after such a costly year.

Artist Spotlight

PAUL HOELSCHER

Talented wildlife artist Paul Hoelscher is a Minnesota native who earned his Bachelor Degree in both Art and Economics at St. Johns University. He is a master of multiple mediums, including acrylic, watercolor, charcoal, pastel, and clay. His works have been featured in Transparent Watercolor Society of America, the Northwest Watercolor Society, and Birdwatcher's Digest. He has also been profiled on Oregon Art Beat and Grant's Getaways. He is inspired by nature and the sketchbook is an essential accessory to his artistic process.

Paul is a shining beacon of positivity every moment that he is present in Crossroads. Through his work in Young Artists Studio and afterschool ArtSpeak classes, Paul provides a supportive and encouraging environment for budding artists where he has the opportunity to see first-hand the creativity, enthusiasm, and lack of artistic biases in his students. He brings the same artistic expertise and instructor support to weekly Open Studio sessions for adults as well. INTIMATE SPACES

On display from August 5th-August 27th. "Intimate Spaces" will display how two artists, who specialize in different art mediums and styles, found artistic common ground in their experiences through the COVID pandemic. Rachael Mayer, a wonderful fiber artist, and Joann Leone, a masterful artist of pastels, present an exhibit that spotlight the beauty of our "intimate spaces" that we have all had to become better acquainted with due to pandemic restrictions. Mayer's fiber art represent intimacy through "History, community, and relationships", while Leone's pastel works "is oriented toward an exploration of the sensory experience itself". These two artists will showcase to us all the beauty in the spaces and relationships closest to us, while demonstrating how fiber art and pastels are fantastic mediums in the fine art world. Don't miss Rachael's weaving class offered on opening day of the show!
