Thank You

As 2023 comes to a close, I want to share my deepest gratitude to all of our donors and sponsors. I am humbled by your continuous generosity and grateful to serve as executive director of Save One Life.

When I reflect on the work we do, I am thankful that so many of you believe in our mission. It's not an easy task to undertake. Helping improve health equity is daunting, but we are making progress. Our numbers continue to steadily grow and our programs are creating lasting change.

One-to-one sponsorships provide stability for families living in tough circumstances. Scholarship recipients pursue dreams they never thought possible. Micro-enterprise grants bring self-sufficiency in a world that often doesn't support people with bleeding disorders. Camp creates unbreakable community bonds and factor from Project SHARE saves lives. Your support and belief in these programs provide these opportunities but also something more intangible. It brings hope. It makes people feel like they aren't alone in the struggle.

On behalf of the team of Save One Life, thank you! We look forward to 2024 and working together to help the bleeding disorders community in developing countries.

Save One Life commits to sending sponsorship funds to beneficiaries — even after they lose a sponsor.

CLIMB MONT BLANC
with Save One Life

July 2 - 10, 2024

Join Chris Bombardier in climbing Mont Blanc. Not only is this an exhilarating experience, but you have the opportunity to help raise funds to support our mission!

$6,000 fundraising minimum per climber

Save One Life invites you to climb the iconic Alps peak to raise awareness and funds for our mission. The trip will be led by Chris Bombardier, our executive director and the first person with hemophilia to conquer the Seven Summits. This is an achievable climb for beginners and experienced climbers alike.

Enrollments are open now!

We have limited spots available—and registration will close in January.

Blanc

We're also thrilled to announce that we have partnered with Sobi and Believe, Ltd. to create a short film documenting eight climbers with hemophilia climbing Mont Blanc. This project is funded by Sobi, and more information will be shared in 2024!

We thank our Corporate Sponsors for supporting our mission.
