*Caring for people with bleeding disorders in developing countries
one life at a time*

Happy Thanksgiving!

November 2019

We have a lot to be thankful for this year at Save One Life. Your support has been amazing and our programs are having a powerful impact on individuals and families affected with bleeding disorders in developing countries. My recent trip to India and the Philippines was a shining example of why we do what we do.

While we have had great success this year, we want to end the year with a bang! Check out below for a limited opportunity to get some Bombardier Blood-inspired gear and support our mission. Any proceeds from your donations go to helping us continue our important work helping others in need.

The board and staff at Save One Life wish you all a happy holiday season!

Chris Bombardier
Executive Director

Together we can reach our summit!

Why wait until Giving Tuesday to give?

Why wait until Black Friday to shop?

Donate today and receive a gift from Save One Life! We appreciate gifts of any size. Each dollar matters, but now through the end of the year, every donation over $25 will receive a Bombardier Blood-related gift.

$25 Base Camper

You receive a Save One Life/Bombardier Blood “buff.” This could be a great present for the active person on your shopping list!

And your contribution will help us ship factor overseas. It could truly save a life!

$75 Icefall Climber

You receive a 14 x 10 limited-edition print of Conquering Everest painted by artist Pat Mancini, father of a child with hemophilia, in honor of Chris Bombardier. This is sure to brighten up any wall and be a reminder that hard work and persistence can pay off!

And your contribution could send one child to summer camp. The camp experience fosters independence, builds self-esteem, and creates a sense of normalcy and community.

$250 Lhotse Face Achiever

You receive a copy of the beautiful coffee table book *The Seven Summits**, signed by Chris Bombardier. The breathtaking pictures and inspiring story would be a wonderful gift for anyone on your shopping list.

This donation of $250 is half the amount of the average scholarship we award deserving students. Education is key to helping those with bleeding disorders obtain financial freedom

$420 Everest Summiter

We will send you all three gifts for this special donation!

Consider your shopping complete!

Make another child with a bleeding disorder smile like this when you sponsor them for $420 a year, or

and lead independent lives.

Field Visits to the Philippines and India

Scholarship recipient Milan with his parents and Save One Life India Coordinator Usha Parthasarathy

Chris with scholarship recipient John Mark and his family near Manila, Philippines

Last month Chris Bombardier, executive director, traveled to India and the Philippines to conduct interviews with scholarship recipients from Save One Life. Filmed by a crew from Believe Limited, these powerful stories will be shared throughout our social media channels and at events in the community.

Fourteen young men were interviewed along with family members and chapter leaders. Their stories of overcoming struggles to earn degrees were incredibly inspiring! Many of the men interviewed have found good jobs allowing them financial stability and independence. Others are still in school and are hopeful that they will graduate and find jobs in the near future.

Chris also met with chapters leaders of the Mumbai, Thane, and Guwahati Hemophilia Societies in India and the Hemophilia Advocates - Philippines (HAP) and Hemophilia Association of the Philippines for Love and Service (HAPLOS). Many beneficiaries of Save One Life's sponsorship program were in attendance and shared their thanks for our donors' commitment to improving their lives.

To hear more from our scholarship recipients, please follow us on Facebook and Instagram.

Micro-Enterprise Grant Program generously supported by Roche/Genentech

- 15 grants, averaging $685, were awarded since our last OneVoice!

The grants were used to purchase sewing machines, goats, a dairy cow, a used car for a taxi service, an embroidery machine and a color copier.

One grant will help a husband and wife start a home computer design business. Others will fund a grocery store, a sweets business and automate a rewinding business. Two others will expand an existing garment resale business as well as a knife shop.

Please sponsor Aliyan

Aliyan lives in Pakistan and is almost four. He and his two siblings have von Willebrand Disease. His mother takes care of the three children and his father is a salesperson. Their monthly income is around $120, but the medical costs are quite high for this family.

Your sponsorship donation would help with Aliyan's school fees and transportation costs to the hospital should he, or a sibling, need treatment.
