2015 Reflection

by Dr. Roy Scheller, CEO

As a new year begins we take the time to pause and reflect on where we have been and where we are going. As I complete my first year as CEO of Hope Community Resources I want to take a moment and express my gratitude to each of you for the investment of time, talent, resources, and heart you have given this past year. Without partnership, the experience of Hope many receive through our organization would be diminished.

Each day headlines we read highlight lack, intolerance, unrest, and division. And yet, there is far more good in the world than the media would have us believe. Each and every day individuals and communities demonstrate beauty and goodness, even though it may not make the evening news. As I experience the Hope stakeholders have generated through thought and action, I more clearly understand the deeper meaning of thanks, joy, giving, and community.

As we review 2015, we highlight individuals and community partners acting as catalysts for the world to “experience Hope” by creating opportunities and outcomes where we experienced abundance rather than lack, acceptance rather than intolerance, harmony rather than unrest, and partnerships rather than division.

Our hearts are full of appreciation, and the following stories highlight the powerful impact of partnership and a commitment to community!

A Community Center for All...

Dennis Haas has always dreamed of living in Alaska on the Kenai Peninsula. Hunting, fishing and being outdoors have always been a way of life for him. With his dream in mind, in 1972 he moved to Soldotna, Alaska.

Nine years later, Dennis' daughter Katie was born and life was wonderful. Then, at five weeks old, Katie developed spinal meningitis. Life was a blur for a while, as Dennis and his wife navigated what this meant for their family.

Eventually the family learned Katie had brain damage. Katie was given a 12-year life expectancy, but she celebrated her 34 birthday this past year. According to Dennis, "This wouldn't have been possible without the support of Hope Community Resources."

For families like Dennis' the Kenai Peninsula community is a special place. Having access to enriching services and supports for their loved ones is extremely important. A desire to have an inclusive and accessible gathering place for their family members was the start of a dream. Over a period of several years, that vision led to the construction of a new inclusive community center this past spring.

The center completion was made possible by essential partnerships and investments from the State of Alaska Legislative Grants, the Rasmuson Foundation, M.J. Murdock Charitable Trust, the Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority, ConocoPhillips Alaska, and numerous local businesses, community members and agency staff.

"Hope has meant everything to my family. The center will ensure Alaskans always have the support they need now and into the future." -Dennis

The Hope Kenai Community Center officially opened in July and has been a bustle of activity ever since.

Volunteer Program Draws Irish Ambassador

Hope was honored to host the Irish Ambassador to the United States of America, Anne Anderson, at a 20-year anniversary celebration of its Irish International Volunteer Program in June, 2015.

Conceived in 1995, the volunteer program originated as a partnership between Hope and Waterford Institute of Technology in Ireland. It was designed to provide a cross-cultural experience for participants, Hope employees, and individuals who choose Hope's services.

Over the past 20 years the program has evolved into a broader international endeavor, working through university communities throughout Ireland, Romania, Austria and Russia. In total Hope has hosted over 2,000 volunteers, with far-reaching effects on participants and their home countries. Many individuals in leadership roles in disability support services in Ireland have volunteered at Hope. Madame Ambassador Anderson shared her country's gratitude for the opportunities offered through this program. She also shared her pride in her countrymen for their outstanding volunteer service.

A Gift of Time, Talent and Resources

When James Turner, the Plant Manager from Ocean Beauty Seafood, was asked why he chose to help us in our endeavor to bring a swing set to Kodiak, he responded by saying, "My employees live in Kodiak and some have family members that receive supports from Hope. By helping Hope, I'm supporting my employees and their families. One hand shakes the other."

Because of people like James and businesses like Ocean Beauty, Hope's Kodiak program now has a fabulous play area outside their community center. The equipment was purchased with grants from the State of Alaska, Healthy Tomorrows, the City of Kodiak, and the Kodiak Island Borough. Getting it to Kodiak was another story, as none of the companies would ship to Kodiak. That's when Ocean Beauty stepped in. James offered to put the kit on one of his tenders and deliver it free of charge. Upon arrival, not only did Ocean Beauty deliver it to our center, they also sent a crew to set it up.

After the erection of the swing set, several community members volunteered to help spread the woodchips and finish up the landscaping. Fishing crews from three local boats then moved the swing set to its permanent local.

Everyone's generosity made the completion of the play area a reality and brought joy to the children awaiting the opportunity to play. This is a true example of how community members experience Hope through gifts of time, talent and resources.

Spirituality and Disabilities

“Clergy Day 2015”*

“We get asked the question, “Why is it important to support persons with disabilities in their spiritual life?” It is because their spiritual being is so closely connected in a positive way with their overall quality of life. Whether it’s contributing to their coping strategies, their emotional or social wellbeing, their psychological and mental health, understanding their meaning in life, or their ability to manage crisis in life, all of these things helped impact people who experience disabilities here at Hope.” –Tonja Rambow

Recognizing the importance of spirituality as critical life domain has led Hope to host a Clergy Day each year to educate local faith leaders about disabilities and help build inclusive faith communities.

This year the 50 people in attendance represented 18 different faith groups, 7 faith organizations, 13 different religious traditions and 6 ethnic groups.

The highlight was a panel discussion on the topic of moving from ministry to people with disabilities to ministry by people with disabilities. Four people who experience disabilities were invited to share their thoughts about their faith practice and participation and how faith community can help people with disabilities feel welcomed, valued and included.

Donor Dollars Change Lives

"Your donation changed my daughter's life."

Isabella experiences some challenges that make socializing with her peers difficult. Many days she would come home from school and say, "I don't have any friends; no one likes me." As a parent, this is absolutely heartbreaking.

This summer, Isabella was able to attend Camp Champion on a Hope Community Resources scholarship. A donor who likely had no idea the difference they would make in one child's life provided this scholarship.

Every day she'd wake up excited to go to camp. I had never witnessed such enthusiasm from her; she even packed her own lunch! Isabella came home from Camp Champion each day with new stories about the activities she participated in and the friends she had made. As a working single mother I could not afford this opportunity, but through the generosity of donors, Isabella was given the priceless gift of feeling valued and accepted.

Donor Dollars Provide Scholarships

Your donation to Hope's scholarship fund makes these stories possible. This year the community helped raise over $20,000 for scholarships. Scholarships assist individuals in participating in camps; a variety of "Hope Community Resources gave my daughter an opportunity to experience joy, friendship and belonging. I am so grateful to the donor who made the scholarship possible." –Lynn classes, such as cooking, hip hop, karate and weight lifting; and outdoor pursuits such as hunting and fishing. Thirty youth and young adults benefited from scholarships in 2015 thanks to the generosity of our donors.

Deanna Shares Her Story

Deanna painted a stunning picture at this year's Hope Auction. Her outfit was fantastic, her hair was beautiful, and her makeup was on point. You'd never be able to tell that she was nervous. Her voice was strong, her speech meaningful.

She addressed the crowd that night as a recipient of a scholarship to attend programs at the Discovery Center, highlighting her participation in Karate classes. Deanna spoke about how important those classes are to her and others; and how the classes had helped build her self-confidence, and invited the crowd to donate to help others have life-changing experiences.

In March of 2016, Deanna and several other participants from this class will be going to Las Vegas to participate in a national Karate tournament—an unfolding story made possible by the generosity of donors.

Dreams Coming True

Have you ever experienced the joy that comes from reaffirming your purpose in life? I have, and it was amazing. Let me tell you about the trip to Ireland and England that I took with Justin and Kristine.

My name is Jenny and I have been working at Hope for 18 years. I've known Justin for more than ten years, and Kristine for at least seven.

Justin has always been able to command a crowd; he is an excellent public speaker and a passionate self-advocate. He's had a dream to go to Ireland and speak with volunteers who would be coming to Alaska to provide supports at Hope. Justin noticed that many of Hope's international volunteers arrived surprised by the duties they encountered to support people in everyday tasks. He decided that he would go to Ireland and speak with the next group. He just needed the support to make international travel possible.

Kristine is proud of her English heritage and she often discusses her desire to see England. Top of Kristine's list was having tea and crumpets with the queen. A close second was the opportunity to draw Big Ben, the London Bridge, and Buckingham Palace. Hearing Justin discuss his desired trip to Ireland, a brilliant idea to join their dreams came about. Both had allocated their PFD toward this idea and a generous donor had given a gift with a stipulation it be used to "help dreams come true," so plans developed to help Justin and Kristine experience a trip of a lifetime.

On October 29, 2015 the three of us boarded a plane for London. We documented the journey on the Hope Studios Facebook page, allowing everyone at home to experience the trip with us.

On our first day in London, when Kristine set eyes on Buckingham Palace, it was a magical moment. She was so taken with the sight that she stood quietly for 10 minutes absorbing every detail. On this day, the flag was flying over the Palace, which meant the Queen was home. Kristine was beside herself with excitement.

We made good use of our time in London seeing everything we could! A few of the highlights were riding the tube, climbing Primrose Hill, walking through Regents Park, and crossing over the Golden Jubilee Bridge.

We left for Ireland on the third day. The first part of our journey through Ireland we fulfilled Justin's goal of speaking with the future volunteers at the Waterford Institute of Technology in Tramore, Southern Ireland.

Both Justin and Kristine spoke with the group of students about working with people who experience a disability. For Justin, this was heaven. He had an audience and everyone's attention. His speech was clear and meaningful as he fulfilled his dream of sharing what it means to support someone with a disability.

In Ireland we were able to see many old friends, volunteers who had come and made a lasting impression on Hope, and on us. The beautiful country, connecting with old friends and the opportunity to experience the wonder of discovery was priceless.

After coming home, I was able to reflect on the trip. Being able to support two people on an international trip, who wouldn't have been able to go without the support of Hope, was life changing. The details of travel were challenging, but the outcome of being witness to dreams coming true was an experience I will never forget.

I Can Do It, You Can Do It

The Discovery Center at Hope was honored to have the opportunity to participate in the “I Can Do It, You Can Do It! (ICDI) Advocates Program in 2015. The ICDI is part of the President’s Council on Fitness, Sports and Nutrition. The goal of the ICDI Advocates Program is to increase the number of opportunities for adults with disabilities, ages 23 to 57 years old, to lead healthy, active, lifestyles where they live, learn and play.

Guided by Adaptive Physical Education Specialist, Pamela Skogstad, the team of employees and volunteers succeeded in their mission to implement quality community based physical activity programming. In addition to adaptive physical activities, they also offered nutritional cooking classes, to give each participant a hands on approach to healthy living through the use of visual recipes.

Partnerships with The Dome, Special Olympics, Alaska Dance Theater, Jewel Lake Bowl, Alaska Jundokan Karate, the YMCA, and the University of Alaska made it possible for the program to succeed and to continue into the future.
