Lodge Upgrade Underway

If it seems like it's been years since the Alumni Association renovated the Lodge...it has been! But, with Rush approaching within weeks, exclusive access to West Wing no longer available and 4 Brothers on campus this semester, the Board decided to step up and create a spot where DKEs could entertain.

Eyes Up

Ben Grannis '17 is bicycling coast to coast and back over the next six months to raise awareness of the dangers of distracted driving. It's part of a fundraiser for the Text Less Live More Foundation, founded after the death of Merritt Levitan, who was killed by a young driver in rural Arkansas on one of Overland Summers's cross country bike trips.

A Proper Lambda Send Off

Due to the impacts of the pandemic and a late reinstatement of the Chapter at Kenyon, Lambda emerged with a single Pledge at the end of the last school year. 7 Alumni from the Fairfield County area took Ben Nash '24 out for a send-off dinner earlier this month and regaled him with Lambda stories told from different eras.
