Lambda Wins Most Improved Chapter Award and Number One Brother Beta at the International Convention

At the recent DKE Convention, Lambda won the Delta Trophy for most improved chapter in the country and our own Andrew Kotler won the Napolitano Award for the best Brother Beta among all DKE chapters. A huge round of clicks to Lambda and Brother Kotler. Alumni President Sam Adams had a chance to interview Andrew for this issue.

Hell Week Songs

While 'Hell Week' is a thing of the past on most college campuses, Hell Week songs live on in the memory of many Lambda brothers. Played more-or-less continuously through work projects and rituals during our week of bonding, these are the songs we still love to hate, the ones that burrowed into our brains—though we still turn the radio up when they come on (if they come on). Check out these Hell Week songs starting with 1970.

Without Delta Kappa Epsilon, I wouldn't have...

Through everything we experience in life, we take something from each moment. Our college years can be some of the most influential years of our lives, and through each experience and moment, we had Delta Kappa Epsilon to fall back on. We recently talked to Delta Kappa Epsilon brothers, here's what they told us they wouldn't have if it weren't for Delta Kappa Epsilon.
