

#1	Lea, 13	Wave & Sunset
“This piece has to do with the theme ‘Together ApART’ because even if we are not all together, most people can see a sunset from where they are in the world.”

#3	Ella, 15	Justice
“Through quarantine, the whole world has been apart. However during this time we have come together to stand up against racial injustice.”

#4	Emily, 18	Love Wins
“During quarantine I have had time to do what I love with people I love. Everyone deserves to be loved, everyone should learn to love themselves, and find love and compassion for others.”

#7	Sam, 15	A Different Point of View
“This is a piece of a Cessna Caravan flying half in the sky and half in a computer game. It’s also a program I use to accomplish my goals of working with planes.”

#8	Kacy, 11	Space is Just a Word
“Even across space we can come together.”

#9	Audrey, 13	Game of Chance
“This piece symbolizes that everything we do to stop the virus is a game of chance. The 20 in the middle symbolizes 2020. The dice also represents that the virus is a word game we have to play apart from each other. ”

#10	Ray, 17	New Normal
“It’s about showing affection for loved ones while remaining separate. It includes lots of elements of Carpinteria (First Beach, Gerbers, Fosters, etc.).”

#5	Augustin, 19	Get Human
“I was inspired by two murals I saw while traveling in Berlin, along with the symbol that has been at the forefront of the Black Lives Matter movement.”

#6	Devyn, 14	Reconnectin g
"Zooming was, at one point, very important for communicating and connecting with others – so I wanted to paint it."

#25	Lucy, 16	Growth
"The smaller flowers represent individuals and together they make up the bigger flowers. I'd like to think that individuals and communities alike are growing during this time."

#26	Edie, 11	Pushing Apart or Pulling Together
“Each circle represents one family or group of people. My piece shows how COVID-19 is pushing us apart. There are also circles that are touching. COVID is also bringing some people together.”

#11	Bella, 10	Apart But Always Together
“Two best friends looking at the stars.”

#12	Shane, 15	Moonlight
"Together but Apart..."

#13	Melody, 16	Awakening
"Quarantine has been a way of everyone just working on themselves. These past few months have been a very eye-opening spiritual and growing experience."

#14	Holly, 16	The Sun
“Not everything is dark so stop killing the light.”

#15	Logan, 12	Peace
“After all that is happening in the world today, we will find peace again. The hard times in life will make us strong in the end.”

#16	Taison, 12	As One
“Two time zones, one world. We may be apart, but we are always together.”

#17	Celeste, 14	Monarch Butterfly
“This reminds me of quarantine because me, my mom, and my sister decided to raise some of them on our milkweed.”

#18	Raven, 17	6 Feet Apart
“I feel like these recent times have brought all of us to create together, even though we cannot be physically together. I hope to portray this in my piece: 6 Feet Apart.”

#19	Jacob, 12	Broken But Together
“I believe this piece speaks for itself...”

#20	Camilla, 14	Street Art
“This represents current events/news on display in public, but how throughout all this, we are still kept together.”

#21	Emma P., 16	Perspective
“The world before and during a pandemic. Some things may have changed but we are still connected.”

#22	Anna, 11	Connected from Afar
“Even though you are in different time zones/places, you can still be connected one way or another.”

#23	Willie, 15	Pigmentally Antipodal Tessellations
“There are a series of tessellating shapes in this panel. They are together in that they are all the same shape, and touch each other – but apart in their colors.”

#24	Rosita, 12	A Day in the Life of Me
“This painting is a collection of the activities I’ve been doing lately. I wanted my painting to be positive and for me, the bright side is having more time to do more things.”

#27	Aurum/ Argentum, 16	The Bubbles We Live In
“We all live in our own little bubbles of personal space and people. (Also, the one on the right is screaming...).”

#28	Silvie, 12	Drifting Dandelion
“When I heard ‘Together Apart’ I thought of a dandelion because it was once together and now is apart.”

#29	Evelyn, 12	Magical Daydream
“I was inspired by all the free time during the pandemic to daydream...”

#30	Aubrey, 13	Tiny Virus
“I wonder how something so small could cause so much trouble; it makes me feel small too.”

#31	Mia, 11	Hold My Hand
“This piece symbolizes two friends of different races coming together through these rough times, and staying in touch through technology.”

#32	Amelia, 10	Look Around Look Around
“This painting is of what I’ve seen every day for the past three months, but my view and my cat always make me the happiest.”

#33	Elena, 15	Justice
“Everyone is equal. Everyone deserves respect. We will fight for Justice.”

#34	Sebastian, 11	"Gimme"
"I have a need for chips, and this painting represents that want or need during a quarantine."

#35	Ashley, 11	IPUL (Iglesia Pentecostal Unida Latino Americano)
"This represents how our Church is with us even though we are in our own homes. We are together and united. Flags represent the different places we come from, each representing a family or several families."

#36	Sierra, 16	Media, Marches, & Movements
“This painting was inspired by social media’s influence on the Black Lives Matter movement. Even though this pandemic has made us feel isolated at times, our ability to unify in the face of injustice has been something that has brought people together, even when apart.”

#37	Madison, 14	2020
“We need Justice and we need to show PRIDE.”

#38	Clover, 13	Untitled
“Trees are something that stand alone, but together they can make something big and beautiful.”

#39	Jillian, 16	Untitled
“What I think I look like chilling in my bedroom. I mostly either took a nap, read a book, or watched Netflix during quarantine. I was a little lonely at first, but now I’m used to it.”
