Carpinteria Arts Center Member? Yes  No

The artist appoints THE CARPINTERIA ARTS CENTER (hereby referred to as the Arts Center) as his/her agent for the purpose of exhibition and sale of the consigned jewelry. I understand that no item will be placed in the Arts Center's jewelry cases without the approval of the jewelry committee.

All pieces are warranted by the artist to be his/her original creation and are the unencumbered property of the artist. All consigned items shall remain property of the artist unless and until they are sold. All consigned items, other than items that have been sold, must remain at the Gallery for the duration of the exhibit. At the time of sale, we may request the artist to consign additional pieces in order assure a complete and pleasing display.

Under no circumstances may items be removed or exchanged prior to the expiration of the exhibit without the approval of the jewelry committee.

Items offered for sale must be properly tagged with a label showing the artist's name, item description, inventory number and price. The artist and the Arts Center shall each maintain an inventory list.

The Arts Center will pay artists the stated price, less the applicable commission, on each work sold. The commission is 40% for all exhibitors; In-gathering fees will be $10 for members, $15 for non-members.

All items are consigned at the risk of the artist. The Arts Center is NOT liable for insurance, damage or theft.

Artists must remove consigned items at the end of the exhibit or make arrangements for pickup. The Arts Center will endeavor to notify the artist of the date and time for pickup of their pieces.

By signing below, I consent to the foregoing terms.
