But the wisdom
that comes from above leads us to be pure, friendly,
gentle, sensible, kind,
helpful, genuine,
and sincere. When peacemakers plant seeds of peace, they will harvest justice.

James 3:17-18 (CEV)

Dear Partners and Friends,

In March, we are expanding to reach more people through the internet. The results from YouTube have made it clear that the older generation is receiving teaching through the internet as well as the younger generation. You, our partners and friends, are a part of changing lives through Jesus. Below are a few testimonials from people ministered to by our YouTube channel.

YouTube Testimonies

After watching the YouTube videos titled “Receiving Healing Part One” and “A Dream from the Lord,” Chad commented, “I like this guy!” and “Praise God, Brother Cecil!”

After watching “A Dream from the Lord,” Sue commented, “God bless you, Cecil. Thank you for the reminder that God does not forget our prayers and he makes a way.”

After watching the YouTube video titled “Eyesight Restored,” James responded, “Thank you, Lord.”

The Language of Unbelief—Demonically Inspired

The language of the world is a language that always focuses on the self-life, as all unbelief is always about us. Unbelief is simply beliefs established from a human perspective, where what is truth to our hearts is reasoned through our five senses in what we touch, taste, see, hear, and smell regarding the issues of life.

This kind of believing, with its focus on self, is contrary to the Word of God, which gives a revelation of God’s perspective. In 1 John 4:5 (NKJV), it says, “They are of the world. Therefore they speak as of the world, and the world hears them.” Another translation says, “...because they speak its language” (CEV).

The demonic realm has observed humans for a very long time in coming to understand God’s creation. If you were able to watch one person for a lifetime, you would come to know that person. It would not matter what that person says they believe; you would come to know the heart beliefs by seeing how they actually relate to life.

The reason those of the world—who do not have the influence of the Holy Spirit on the inside of them through revealed truth—will listen to the influence of the demonic realm is that they speak its language.

James 3:14-15 (CEV)

<sup>14</sup> But if your heart is full of bitter jealousy and selfishness, don't brag or lie to cover up the truth. <sup>15</sup> That kind of wisdom doesn't come from above. It is earthly and selfish and comes from the devil himself.

I ministered to a man one time who was hearing voices that began after his father died. His father was never a loving father. He was terribly twisted on the inside by the issues of life. He never obtained freedom and was never a loving father to his son. In fact, there was a hardness and harshness at times that came instantly out of the father. On this man's deathbed, as he was dying, the son was trying to resolve the issues within his own heart, from the terrible relationship he had with his father, by getting his father to admit he had been the problem. He told me that his father had died while trying to accomplish this. It was at that point that the son said to himself, "What am I going to do? He is dead. It is impossible now to resolve these issues."

The truth is, his belief about it being impossible for him to obtain freedom is a lie. But it was not a lie to him, as it was what he now believed.

We have Jesus, His life and presence living on the inside of us, which means nothing is impossible to us. "With God all things are possible" (Matt. 19:26).

Proverbs 7:3 (KJV) tells us that we can write on the table of our hearts. During adverse circumstances of life, we write on the table of our hearts by establishing a deep heart belief based on how we interpret those circumstances.

After his father's death, with this belief deep within his heart, this man began to be influenced by the demonic realm, and he would listen to their influence, as they spoke his language. They spoke to him with a selection of words in relationship to what was already in his heart, and he would listen by meditating on these voices.

2 Corinthians 2:11 (NKJV)

Lest Satan should take advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his devices.

James 3:16 (NKJV)

For where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing are there.

At his father's deathbed, instead of focusing on his father for his benefit, the son's focus was selfishly on himself.

James 3:17-18 (CEV)

<sup>17</sup> But the wisdom that comes from above leads us to be pure, friendly, gentle, sensible, kind, helpful, genuine, and sincere. <sup>18</sup> When peacemakers plant seeds of peace, they will harvest justice.

When we focus on ourselves in relationship to life, we make everything about us, becoming self-centered, or what's more commonly referred to as selfish. This is what is at the very root of the devil's nature.

Ezekiel 28:17 (NKJV)

Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; You corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor.

When Lucifer began to focus on himself, this was the beginning of the process of perverting his heart. This resulted in him exalting himself within his own heart.

Even though he was right before the very presence of our heavenly Father, who is love, the devil's own heart blinded him from seeing truth, as everything he saw was filtered through a very selfish, self-centered heart.

In Hebrews 4:2, it says that the same Gospel was preached to everyone but not everyone heard the same thing, as they chose not to mix faith in what they were hearing. This was because of the conditions of their hearts, which were full of the issues of life, as they had lived as slaves in Egypt.

Hebrews 3:7-8 (NKJV)

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says: “Today, if you will hear His voice, <sup>8</sup> Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, In the day of trial in the wilderness.”

People’s will is involved in determining if they choose to hold on to their issues as their perspective of truth or be willing to yield to God’s voice in obtaining His understanding.

As believers in Christ, what makes us different in relationship to life is that Jesus is our source of life. Becoming who we are in Christ is the process of being conformed to the image of Christ.

There are Christians who have the life of Christ within them, their bodies becoming the temple of the Holy Spirit at salvation, but they never allow Jesus to be their source of life. They never learn to depend on the Spirit of Christ, who dwells within them at salvation. Also, many believers never establish a relationship with the Holy Spirit.

By establishing a relationship with the Holy Spirit, we establish a way of relating to Him. The Holy Spirit is not the problem in relating. We are the problem when we limit Him in our lives. By establishing a right way of relating to Him, our hearts open up to Him instead of having the attitude of just wanting Him to do something for us.

So, you can trust the Holy Spirit to help you, and value His voice, as He knows you better than you know yourself in exactly what you spiritually need.

Testimonies

Susan wrote after her husband was prayed for: “THANK YOU THANK YOU THANK YOU—improvement already as healing is received and manifesting. We love you and your ministry. Thank You, dear Jesus!”

“Hi, Cecil and Lisa. I purchased your book, Issues of the Heart. I love the book! I shared it with a close friend of mine who has been struggling with an abortion she had years ago. Although she is a believer and spirit filled, speaking in tongues, she has yet to be free from the condemnation of her abortion. I witnessed to her from your book and gave her the book to take home and meditate on it. I just wanted you to know that she is getting real revelations from your book and understanding why she wasn’t set free. I am seeing a real transformation in her because of what she is taking to heart from your book.”

“Cecil and Lisa, thank you for the email you sent before the elections [about] the dream that Cecil had, as it is keeping my heart encouraged and keeping me stirred up to continue to take my authority against the evil that is coming against our country.”

Thank You!

Lisa and I are very grateful to you, our friends and partners of this ministry, as together we are seeing lives changed. We believe that you, our partners, are greatly prospering—spirit, soul, and body—as you experience increase in the seed you have sown multiplying and increase in the fruits of your righteousness. God’s richest blessings in Christ are already yours. Believe and establish this truth in your heart and have an open heart to receive all that God has given you in Christ Jesus.

Happy St. Patrick’s Day!

Love and blessings,

Cecil + Lisa
